Pahrump water rights relinquishment mapping available

CARSON CITY, Nev. – The Nevada Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, Division of Water Resources (DWR) is pleased to announce the publication of a web map showing parcels where water rights have been relinquished in Pahrump. The Pahrump Water Rights Relinquishment Mapping Application is available on the DWR website, located at <http://webgis.water.nv.gov/pahrump/>.

Users can search the map by Assessor Parcel Number or street address and are encouraged to use the web map for an initial determination of whether water rights have been relinquished in support of domestic wells prior to contacting NDWR. Information regarding the process by which water rights can be acquired and relinquished is also included.

THE NEVADA DIVISION OF WATER RESOURCES conserves, protects, manages and enhances the state's water resources for Nevada's citizens through the appropriation and reallocation of the public waters. Water Resources is a division within the Nevada Department of Conservation of Natural Resources.
