Landscape Photography Exhibit featured at Comstock History Center Museum

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev. – The Comstock History Center Museum is pleased to announce the opening of a new landscape photography exhibit entitled, “Sagebrush Visions: The photography of Will Barber”.

The exhibit features 20 color and black & white photographs depicting the alluring and ever-changing colors, textures and tones of northern Nevada’s mountains, basins, cloud formations and lakes.

The Comstock History Center Museum is located at 20 N. E Street in Virginia City, two blocks downhill from the Bucket of Blood Saloon. Admission is free and the museum is open year-round on the following schedule: Thursdays and Fridays from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
